

As a star of readers, the Twin Books are unlike anything I have ever encountered. They illuminate the minds of readers, guiding them on the path of truth and righteousness, offering many examples—good, bad, or evil. Readers have the freedom to choose which examples to follow and which to reject, resisting the globalist’s controlling forces that push Earth out of balance and strip nature of its freedom & justice.

Thanks, the Light of the Twin Books. I am growing spiritually, freeing myself from the dark force of mental imprisonment. I now align myself with the organic nature of Mother Earth, with deep respect. I am becoming a spiritual awakener, seeking enlightenment and breaking free from global enslavement. Each life lesson in the Twin Books has been invaluable knowledge and information to me, and I believe other readers will find similar transformation and healing. The multi-dimensional sources and examples within these life lessons support self-experimentation, self-discovery to self-development, and help eradicate the root of problems through deep healing. One by one, we can change ourselves and, in turn, the world.

It is my optimistic vision that the physical Twin Books should be displayed attractively everywhere—in living rooms, waiting rooms, even lock-up rooms, etc. I eagerly anticipate the song contest coming to fruition, imagining that contestants of all cultures will bring pureness of nature and entertainment, united in joyous consciousness.
